

15-19 FEB 2016 CENTRE FOR SOCIAL STUDIES UNIVERSITY OF COIMBRA

> Colégio da Graça Seminar room 3rd Floor Rua Sofia 136 3000-389 Coimbra Portugal

writing creatively in an academic context

convenor | Amal CHATTERJEE*

>> COURSE PROGRAMME

SESSION 1 | 15th February. Monday

SESSION 2 | 16th February. Tuesday

> European Research Council EXCHANGE Project ERC Grant N° 648608§

Horizon 2020 European Union funding for Research & Innovation

10 am - 4 pm (with breaks)

10 am - 4 pm (with breaks)

BREAK | 17th February. Wednesday INDIVIDUAL WRITING DAY

SESSION 3 | 18th February. Thursday

10 am - 4 pm (with breaks)

10 am - 4 pm (with breaks)

No session

After reading (a selection of) the material written in the previous session and developed during the Individual Writing Day, group feedback as used in creative writing sessions: the writers will get to hear about, and consider, readers' responses to their writing. There will be at least two rounds of this, between which participants will revise segments or the whole.

SESSION 4 | 19th February. Friday

* Amal Chatterjee is a writer and teaches fiction at the University of Oxford, UK. He has published a novel, which was shortlisted for the Crossword Book Award in India, history and short stories. He is also editor and contributor of Creative Writing: Writers on Writing, an anthology of original writing and reflective essays about the process of creation. He has been awarded a Scottish Arts Council Writer Bursary, was shortlisted for Creative Scotland Award, was a writer in residence in Shanghai and writes occasional reviews for the Dutch newspaper Trouw. Born in Colombo, Sri Lanka, Amal has Indian and Sri Lankan roots and currently divides his time between Amsterdam and Oxford. He also advises the literary festival of the city of the Hague in the Netherlands and projects on writing in Scotland and India.

opean Research Council EXCHANGE Project ERC Grant N° 648608§

His website is http://amal.tomali.net

Horizon 2020 European Union funding for Research & Innovation